

Call for Papers

The 29th Annual Graduate Student Philosophy Conference at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
March 30-31, 2007

Keynote lecture:
“Breaking the Spell: Religion as a Natural Phenomenon” by

Daniel Dennett

Director of the Center for Cognitive Studies
Austin B. Fletcher Professor of Philosophy
Tufts University

The Graduate Conference at the University of Illinois is the longest running conference of its type in the country. Unique in its diversity, this conference typically features papers representing the best graduate work being done in Analytic and Continental philosophy. We welcome papers from graduate students on any topic of philosophical interest and from any philosophical perspective.

Submission Deadline: January 19, 2007

Submission Guidelines: Authors should email their submissions as an attachment (.doc .rtf .pdf) to the following address: uiucgradconf@gmail.com. Papers should not exceed 15 pages in length in standard format. Selections are determined by blind review: no identifying references should appear within the paper. Please include your name, affiliation, address, phone number, and email address either as a separate attachment or in the body of your email. Identify your email in the message line as “uiuc grad conf submission”. Papers may be mailed in duplicate to the following address:

Daniel Estrada
Department of Philosophy
University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
810 S. Wright/105 Gregory Hall
Urbana, IL 61801